THURSDAY OCTOBER 29, 1908

Cathcart will be elected. Only the straight ticket is in doubt.

Judd says Cathcart talk clouds the campaign issues—with a nasty fog of mud.

Straight-ticket voting will preserve the good name of Hawaii for business administration.

Do you note the latest news from Hawaii County? Let the City and County of Honolulu do as well.

Cathcart's defamers, so anxious to meet him in court, have found, after careful thought, that they really haven't time.

Frank Harvey finds in the Republican split-ticket voting for Watson his only hope of being elected to the Territorial Senate.

Straight-ticket voting will be the feature of this campaign, made uterly disgraceful by an outfit calling themselves Moralists.

J. P. Cooke has opened up the whole scheme of defeating the Republican ticket and the organization.
The gang would deny it if they could.

When a funeral follows the reference to domestic affairs by a disreputable gang of defamers, Honolulu will realize that it has allowed the muddlingers to go far enough.

As between Dickey, Castle, Scudder, and W. O. Smith, Judd, J. P.
Cooke, there is no doubt on whose judgment of candidates the people will rely.

The party of Defamation is proud of the fact that it employs agents who are not citizens. It has also in its ranks men who should properly be brought before the courts for election fraud.

Run down to its source, the movement of Republican friends to vote for Watson will be found to have originated in the same camp as the anti-Cathcart campaign. Yet they try to represent themselves as Republicans!

The developments in the Bodejeau do not cast creditable reflections on the police or the conclusions of the Grand Jury, if the reports current are correct. It is about time that affair had a competent and thorough investigation.

More Lord Bacon law is being relied upon to prove the ridiculous claim that Circuit Judges are disqualifying themselves for the trial of libel cases, by their unanimously favorable opinion of Mr. Cathcart as a prosecuting officer.

Republican runners at Pearl City are reported as distributing tickets with the names of Henriques, Holt, and Cathcart scratched off. Here again is evidence of the effort to overthrow the party in the Legislature as well as the City and County. There is no need to ask where the scheme originated.

MORE MUD.

The response made to J. P. Cooke's expose of the scheme laid by Cath-cart's enemies to defeat the Republican party and the Republican organization is what might be expected—
More Mud.

THAT EQUALITY 600.

Following the example of the Civic Fraternization Society with its secret membership, the Equality "party" of Mr. Nakolea has made an announcement of the candidates it supports.
The organization of the Equality Society, was exclusively reported in the Bulletin. The first meeting was attended by sixty people, counting women and children. Now we learn that the membership of the party is six hundred.

Why not make it six thousand?
The folly of the whole thing would not be less apparent.

It is also well for the Republicans to bear in mind that this "party" that has repudiated Cathcart has also "repudiated" a good number of other candidates on the Republican ticket.

No further evidence is needed to prove that the men who are fighting Cathcart are doing their utmost to defeat the whole Republican ticket.

BAD, AND GLAD OF IT.

There is a certain order of humanity that reaches such a low level as to be bad and proud of it.

This is the standard on which the exposed and distressed enemies of the Republican party are operating. Every move they have made is based on what President Roosevelt designated by a shorter word than the ordinary term for falsehood.

Perhaps the silliest thing now being done is the effort to prove that Mr. Cathcart on the stump is not being well received by the voters. As a matter of fact, he is being given the most enthusiastic reception of any of the candidates. The malice of the attacks is making him new friends and more vigorous supporters every day.

As this form of misrepresentation is a miserable failure, the scheme of misrepresenting the figures of the party canvassers has been resorted to.
Here again the untruth is quickly exposed.

This, however, does not worry them. The disreputable managers of the dirt campaign are vile and contemptible, and they don't care who knows it.

That the voters should be expected to support such a campaign is an insult to the decent men of the City and County of Honolulu.

THOSE BRAVE DEFAMERS!

Intelligent voters of the City and County have not forgotten that the men, who tried to blackmail Cathcart into withdrawing from the Republican ticket, were loud in their typographical announcements that they would willingly meet Cathcart in the press, on the stump, or in the courts.

They have not met him on the stump.

They have not met him in the press except to mark each passing day with a smother of libel and degrading insults.

They have not met him in the courts, notwithstanding they have had ample, more than ample, opportunity to do so.

The enemies of Cathcart who are now clearly shown to be the enemies of the Republican party have dodged every opening given them to prove their charges before a Judge and Jury. They can't be seen in the courts for the dust they are making to escape.

When Cathcart challenged them to come into court, they side-stepped.
They told of their "fear" of contempt.
They said their regular attorney had not arrived. They dodged behind Lord Bacon law and any factious excuse that came to mind.

Then their "regular" attorney arrived. Still they refused to go into court. They knew after the Orpheum meeting that Cathcart had them sewed up on the charges they had brought against him.

Then and now they are taking every advantage of the law's delays and their rights and privileges as defendants.

In other words, they have received a body blow and they are taking the full count.

Cathcart was ready and is ready to go into court. He called on his enemies to meet him there and they "all with one accord began to make excuses."

They have forgotten all this. They want the people to forget it.

But the people will not be slow to forget the character and campaign of Republican traitors and party enemies who have gained for themselves the dubious notoriety of conducting the dirtiest, the most disgraceful contest ever carried out in these islands.

The anti-Cathcart muddlingers are afraid to come into court. And they know it.

TO MAKE ABSOLUTELY CER-TAIN THAT THEIR CASE WILL

(GOVERNOR FREAR)

"As I said in my speech at Ala-Park, country comes first, party second, as a matter of course.

"THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT PARTY should be IGNORED or that THE VOTER should select from the DIFFERENT PARTIES THE BEST MEN VIEWED AS INDIVIDUALS.

"PARTIES ARE NECESSARY AND DESIRABLE IN REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

"Team work is essential to accomplish practical results. Accordingly in politics as well as business it is often necessary to select and vote for men who by working together can accomplish desired results even though they are not men who might be preferred as individuals.

"Of course, there may be men on the party ticket who should not be voted for either for the good of the country or party, but just where the line should be drawn is a matter for individual judgment."

citizens of the Territory that through their different organizations, commercial and other, they urge upon Governor Frear the appointment of a thoroughly representative committee to give consideration to this matter.
If the suggestion is deemed feasible and desirable, an organization should be effected as soon as possible and the work of preparation commenced.
A fund of at least Five Hundred Thousand Dollars should be provided, of which amount, the Federal Government might well be asked to furnish one-half.

No general exposition should be attempted, though a thorough exploitation should be made of our products in a special building, an auditorium would also be needed. The time should be, say, July 1st to 15th, 1912, July 4th being set as Naval Day. It should be possible to have the entire Pacific Fleet in our waters at that time, together with a large number of foreign men-of-war.
The President and Secretary of the Naval should be invited as well as all of the members of the Senate and House Committees on Military Affairs.

Our Consular Service could also be called upon and representatives from commercial bodies of every city and port interested in the Pacific Ocean traffic would be present.

During the time of the celebration, special inter-island excursions could be run so as to give our visitors an opportunity to see every part of the Territory.

A hundred other ideas will occur to you as to ways and means of making such a celebration attractive and effective. I am thoroughly convinced that such an undertaking can be carried out successfully and hope that the committee may give the matter careful consideration.

By the last mail, we received from Frank C. Clark, folders descriptive of his "Around the World Cruises," together with cabin plans of the Arabia, which are now on file in our office.

Mr. Clark writes that on the westward cruise, the Arabia is scheduled to leave San Francisco Feb. 5th, 1910, arriving at Honolulu Feb. 13th and remaining at least two days. In port. We hope to be able to get this time extended. At our request, Mr.
Clark has kindly consented to send us the names of passengers as they book in order that we may send them folders descriptive of Hawaii. We have made the same arrangement with Thos. Cook & Son, Raymond & Whitcomb, Colver's and other general tour ist agencies.

Mr. H. G. Richley, superintendent of construction of U. C. public buildings, writes us from Spokane, asking for folders descriptive of Hawaii. Mr.
Richley is now superintending the construction of the Federal building at Spokane, which he hopes to have completed next May, when he may come to Hawaii to start work on our Federal building.

The Truth About Kidney Trouble

(PHYSICAL WEAKNESS)

When there is a pale, pasty complexion that persists in spite of diet and careful living, or where there is physical weakness that likewise resists the most treatment, the kidneys are to be suspected.

Food often does people with kidney trouble very little good. In the system the albumen, starches and sugars that our food contains the kidneys do their best to filter them, and tests disclose them in the eliminations unused. The patient grows weaker and weaker, and as the kidneys are not sensitive there is usually no pain, and there appears to be no cause for the continued weakness. In such cases a test for albumen may disclose a strong percentage of the strength of the food in the eliminations unused, but as albumen can not be seen and is only disclosed through chemical tests, the patient, unless he is in the hands of a physician, often has no line on his difficulty, and thousands of such cases grow unwittingly into the supposed chronic, incurable stage.

In these cases FULTON'S Renal Compound acts definitely, but quite slowly, for the inflammation is usually of considerable standing and permanence. As in the other cases of inflammation of the kidneys Medical Works have nothing but diet and symptomatic treatment, both of which have proven futile in these chronic cases.

As FULTON'S Renal Compound reduces the inflammation, the albumen will be found to be gradually decreasing and recovery show but definite in about 87 per cent of all cases.
